Thought for the Day:

"I think of hell as the culmination of a person's own freely chosen life-plan. Hell isn't what God does to people: it is what people do to themselves." Richard Mouw, from his book, Uncommon Decency, Inter Varsity Press, 1992

Sunday Worship

18th July 2010

12 Noon

Jesus said "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." Matt. 11:28

Welcome

Praise begins with our own Kilkenny Methodist Church Band at 11:40 am. Formal Worship begins at 12:00 noon with a welcome followed by a few moments of silent meditation.

We extend a warm welcome to all who are worshipping with us at Kilkenny Methodist. Visitors are encouraged to sign our guest book and make them-selves known to the minister and members of the congregation.

After a moment of quiet meditation.

Call to Worship: (based on Micah 6:1-8)

Leader: Come together, O people of the Lord.

People: And listen to the mighty voice of God!

Leader: Let us remember all the blessings of the Lord.

People: And the strength we have received from God's hands.

Leader: Open your hearts to all the Lord would ask of you.

Unison: To do justice, love kindness and walk humbly with our God!

Prayer: Lord, our God, we come into your house to worship and praise your name. Touch our lives in this time of worship that we may feel your Spirit working in us to inspire and encourage us in our faith journey. Lord of life, we have received your blessings and have been given the promise of blessings to come, now in response to your merciful grace and love, we lift our voices and shout your praise. Touch us Lord, with your ancient touch that our lives may be changed and our love for you renewed as the morning. Now in the words of Jesus, we pray together: Our Father....Amen.
